

Over the past several years, some exciting and dynamic research has emerged about water.

Beyond liquid, solid, and vapor, there's a 4th Phase of water. Somewhere between a liquid and a solid, there's a gel state to water. It's not thick, but more silky than H₂O with one extra hydrogen and oxygen molecule. H₃O₂ is the kind of water that's in our body - and our fruits and vegetables!

The Greenfield Water Solutions line of water structuring devices is a way to transform water into the perfect state that's most in alignment with your body and your health.

Aqua Energizer reshapes and remineralizes water. Each unit is hand-assembled using copper, quartz and minerals. The unique look of the devices comes from a mineralized coating which allows H₂O to change into H₃O₂, the water your body is actually craving.

Solutions. Gary Greenfield was key in helping our family with a level of generosity and no expectation of anything in return when we lived on our farm. His heart and service to the community in the United States and abroad is truly an example we are eager to follow. When we used Greenfield Water Solutions on our market gardens and animals on our 1200 acre regenerative agrarian operation we saw a significant improvement in the health and productivity of our plants and animals. On our current home, we've seen significant improvement in our whole house water quality as well as in the health of our pets.
